S. S. JAGUAR

The Autocar says
"A credit to the British Automobile Industry"
To men and women accustomed to the finer things of life, this "Jaguar" makes a big appeal. With all the luxurious comfort and dignified appearance of a fine town carriage, it combines a fast car performance. Whether it is gliding its way through West End traffic or sweeping silently along country lanes, it is "at home" on every occasion and for every purpose.

Here are a few features of the 2½ litre Saloon:
- 6-cyl. O.H.V. engine (£13 tas);
- 4-speed synchromesh gearbox—"finger tip" control;
- 7-bearing crankshaft;
- Twin carbs.; Super-powerful Girling brakes; underslung frame;
- Burman-Douglas steering, adjustable for height;
- Four-door coachbuilt body in wide range of attractive colour schemes. Price (ex works) £385.
Never before were Luxury & Power so closely blended.

The trend of motoring has veered, very definitely, towards cars of outstanding performance which offer a high degree of luxury and comfort. Just as definitely, the S&S Jaguars have attained pre-eminence in this class, and are indeed quoted by the "Autocar" as being a "Credit to the British Automobile Industry." A fascinating flexibility makes the Jaguar readily responsive under all traffic conditions, with complete absence of Performance so perfectly balanced driving strain over the longest journeys. Its road-holding and braking are superlative, its silence at all speeds a revelation. The extreme fascination of handling the Jaguar is admirably balanced by its deep comfort ... a sense of spaciousness, its general dignity and the sheer quality of its appointments.

Truly a car that demands your earnest consideration ... a car that will, in every way, satisfy your pride of possession.
